

We were 4 students in our internship during 24 days: two Waitresses Emma and Laureanna, Ethan and Charles as cooks.

In Cyprus we had 2 apartments , girls and boys separately, Ethan and Charles were with 2 another people

We had the same working time: we worked 8 hours in the kitchen with a break in the middle of the day

The hotel's name is the Alexander the Great:

Our tutor was a chef Demetris and the waitresses' tutor was Elena , a Food and Beverage manager.

We contributed to change the recipes of the French menu like the "quiche lorainne" with cheese

Our manager provided us a bus card in order to travel from our hotel to the appartement and in order to visit the city of Paphos.

We visited a museum and an archeology site.

It's a good experience, we discovered new culture and new cultural gastronomy like mousaka, pastitio, halloumi, loukanika and koupepia
